

Canton World, Sept. 25, 1914

Mrs. Frank E. Benedict: Mrs. Frank E. Benedict died with heart disease at her home, Meadow Brook Place, Friday morning September 18. She had been ailing for nearly two years; she was buried from her home Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. Broughton officiating. The many beautiful floral offerings testified of the friends she had made during her long residence in Canton.

She was born in Owego, NY March 6, 1842, when five years at the death of her father she went to live with her uncle, Joseph Berry of Norwich with whom she lived until her marriage with John S. Miner. After his death she moved to Canton and was married to Frank E. Benedict on December 14, 1872. She was educated at the Norwich Academy and a young ladies seminary at Brooklyn, NY.

She is survived by her husband and four children, Fred W. of Bath, NY; Harriet of this place by her husband and by her second marriage, Maud G. Benedict and Mrs. Robert Gleckner of Canton. She also leaves two brothers, Ira Williams of Cedar Ledge, Fred Williams of Gaines PA and two sisters, Mrs. Henry Watrous and Mrs. John Kiljard of Gaines, PA. She has been an active member of the M.E. Church since her girlhood days and a member of the Canton M.E. church for over forty years.

~~~~~
Annotated version: [My notations in brackets]

Mrs. Frank E. Benedict: Mrs. Frank E. Benedict died with heart disease at her home, Meadow Brook Place, Friday morning September 18. She had been ailing for nearly two years; she was buried from her home Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. Broughton officiating. The many beautiful floral offerings testified of the friends she had made during her long residence in Canton.

She was born in Owego, NY March 6, 1842, when five years [of age] at the death of her father [Ira Williams, died 1847] she went to live with her uncle, Joseph Berry [Actually it was Ansel Berry of Norwich, her great uncle. Joseph Berry, Ansel's father, died in 1805.] of Norwich with whom she lived until her marriage with John S. Miner [Serenio W. Miner]. After his death she moved to Canton and was married to Frank E. Benedict on December 14, 1872. She was educated at the Norwich Academy and a young ladies seminary at Brooklyn, NY.

She is survived by her husband [Frank E. Benedict] and four children, Fred W. of Bath, NY; Harriet [Miner] of this place [Canton]; by her husband and by her second marriage, Maud G. Benedict and Mrs. Robert [Georgia] Gleckner of Canton. She also leaves two brothers, Ira Williams of Cedar Ledge, Fred Williams of Gaines PA and two sisters, Mrs. Henry [Emma Lucy] Watrous and Mrs. John Kiljard [half-sister, Julia Champney Kjelgaard] of Gaines, PA. She has been an active member of the M.E. Church since her girlhood days and a member of the Canton M.E. church for over forty years.